

Job Cole – Eastham Land Records 1650-1745

Job Cole was born in England about 1609. He and his brothers Daniel and John were in Plymouth in the early 1630's. He was in Eastham and appointed to the group of Purchasers about 1645. He was constable in 1648 and surveyor of highways in 1654. Job and his wife Rebecca Collier had three children. Job died after 1683 but before 1698 when Rebecca died. They both died in Eastham and both most likely are buried in unmarked graves in Cove Burying Ground.
